

Whitstable Beach Campaign Data Protection Policy

On the basis of consent we only hold the name and email address of supporters in the UK. This is in order to communicate issues concerning Whitstable Beach such as updates on the Whitstable Beach Campaign (WBC) website or bringing supporters attention to specific concerns.

This information is never shared with any authority, organisation, individual or company, unless in the very unlikely event we are legally required to.

Additionally email addresses and names are not shared within the supporters group when a general email is distributed.

However, you have the right to be informed of any of personal data held, and if any supporter objects to these arrangements and wishes to be removed from the mailing list they should notify the WBC Secretary straight away via the Campaign website: whitstablebeachcampaign.org.uk .

You also have the right to complain about how your data is being handled to the information Commissioner:
